1. To polish and publish a modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet.

One bright sunny day in Verona the two best swimming pools the Montagues and Capulets had once again been swapping the prizes. However, a Capulet had been sneaking around the pool taking down the posters suddenly the Capulet had been spotted. News that made the Montagues crazy. The Montagues had known put lots of slippery water in the car park all of this pitiful, pointless fighting was getting out of hand. It was worse every day. It was making the Verona towns people furious so the manager Escalus had known announced to the Montagues and Capulet that any silly nuisance would result in the pools being closed down for ever.

As time past the Capulets excitedly held the best lifeguard of the year awards in the staffs enormous sparkling local room with gold everywhere. The staff nervously waited to see who was going to be the best lifeguard of the year. Three sneaky men slowly climbed nervously into the room the men were called Romeo, Benvolio and Mercutio. As the manager announced the lifeguard of the year it was Tybalt. The men left as Tybalt excitedly ran up stage. Romeo glanced at a lonely pined soul the girl was called Juliet. When he started to stroll over to the girl of his dreams he had seen her beautiful face. Nervously he strolled to Juliet, when she spotted him her heart beat slowly as Romeo asked her to dance. They both happily danced knowing they were the perfect match they had to get married straight away. Just after the secret wedding the perfect couple got married by friar Lawrence Romeo and Juliet were married. Later that morning Romeo was proudly strolling down the street when all of a sudden Tybalt and his crew jumped out and Tybalt challenged Romeo to a fight. Romeo replied "I do not wish to fight you I am a lover."

"You chicken!" Shouted Tybalt. Slowly Romeo ^{walked} away but Mercutio accepted. "So all of that my word was funny? Well see about that!"

Sadly Murtio Fell to his death Romeo Furious he accepted the challenge. They both Fought but Romeo stabbed Tybalt down on the the Floor with his deadly Sward. The Manger of the Verona pool's announced that Romeo was banished From his job For ever he could never walk into the pool ever again or he would die.

Meanwhile, Juliet had rushed to Friar Lawrence after hearing the defistating news she had been forced to marry Paris. Friar Lawrence was eager to help his Friends Juliet. He Started thinking OF a Plan then it took him he was going to make a Sandwich and put Sleeping powder in it. He wisperd to Juliet "I have made a Sandwich For you to aper dead For 42 hours I will Send a message to Romeo and you ^{can} run away to gether."

"Okay just dont Forget about the message" replied Juliet
"I will not, my lady" replied Friar Lawrence.

The next day lady OF Capulet and lord OF Capulet discovered that Juliet did not awake for breakfast Suspishasly they strolled quickly up the Shiny Staircase into her buliful bedroom. To their anarent they somowfully Saw their tragic loss. The Families was heart broken from their delicate daughter dead. Regretfully the crying souls took Juliet to her final bed, the tomb. Hiding in the hedis was Romeo's personal assistant Balthazar. AS quick as a Flash Balthazar Sped in his car to Romeo and Sadly told Romeo the bad News. Romeo's heart Split in half. He immediately declared, "IF My ~~lady~~ lady is dead then I shall die with her!" The messenger sent the message but it was too late. Romeo Forced the apothecist to give him some posion so the apothecist did.

Panting, Romeo soon arrived to the tomb and his eyes watered as big as a water fall and he saw Juliet's lost soul. Romeo gave Juliet her Finall kiss hoping it was only a dream. He breathed his last beath and he drunk the trible posion. Romeo Fell to the Floor in horrib pair, agony and died. Eventually Juliet rose in tears. She reached for the dagger and staked it into her perfect heart. The two sorrowful lovers were found. The two heart broken families were devastated. The Manger of Verona pool's was as angry as a raging bull and blamed the two families on their deaths. 'For never was there a story of more woe, than that of Juliet and her Romeo.
